PROJECTS

Precision farming : Crop Selection And Yield Forecasting With Machine Learning

Jan 2025 – June 2025

Streamlit with altair charts , XGBoost, Random Forest

- Developed a machine learning-based Crop Recommendation System using Random Forest and XGBoost on an agro-climate dataset of 4000+ records(temperature, humidity, rainfall, soil pH, land size).
- Implemented data preprocessing including handling missing values, label encoding of categorical features, feature scaling, and SMOTE to handle class imbalance.
- Designed intuitive UI with input forms and interactive Altair bar charts for visualizing crop suitability and yields.
- Designed the system to be modular and scalable, allowing future integration of weather APIs, regional soil data, and IOT sensor inputs.
